Art Editor WILLIAM COUNTRYMAN

This edition of Che-Ga-Quat-Ka is a memory book. Your memories of 1949 are cherished events, and it is the purpose of this yearbook to preserve them. Capturing the spirit of your classes, your organizations, your friends . . . bringing back to mind half-forgotten incidents that were all-important at the time . . . picturing scenes from your school life — the junior prom, the senior play, clubs, snapshots . . . reviewing your Alma Mater, containing ideals you always will remember . . . listing scraps of information about you and your friends . . . giving the senior class history . . . the Che-Ga-Quat-Ka is YOUR BOOK. Relive 1949!

THE GREATEST POISON

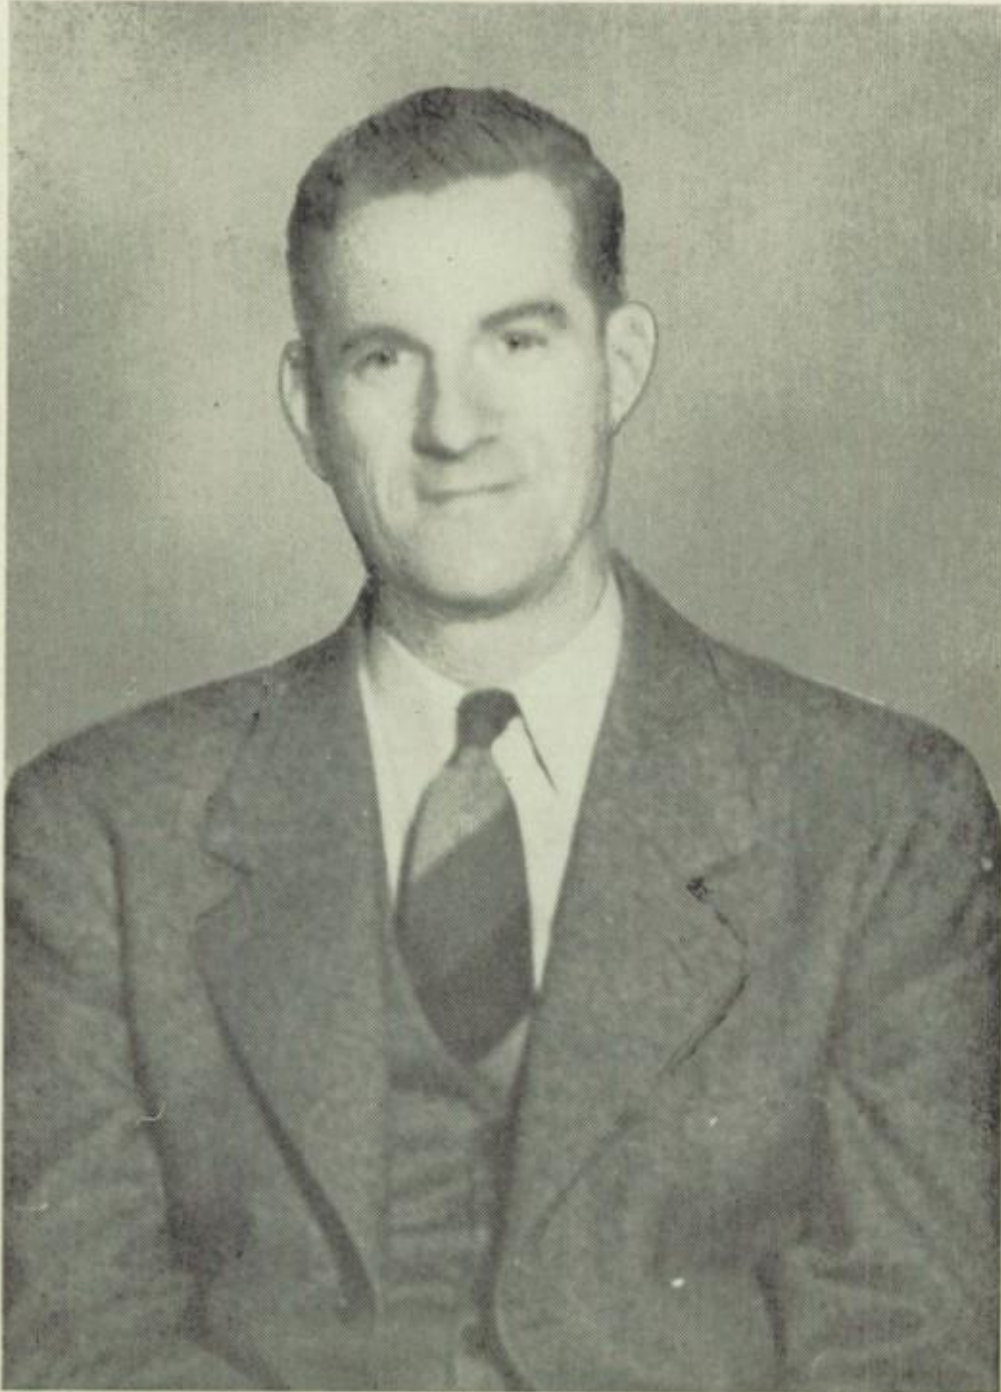

We, the youth of America, are faced by a great problem — intolerance. This country is strong because it is united; we must preserve that strength. Not only in our own nation, but also in international relations we must wage war against prejudice in order to secure a peaceful world.

It is our duty to destroy the poison, seeping into one's mind, that produces the mental condition responsible for so many heartbreaks and not too frequently, deaths. Intolerance, prejudice, hate — it really does not matter what name the poison goes by, the effect is the same. People slay each other, calling it hate; nations at war search for methods of killing more of the enemy and name the desire "self-protection"; the world bursts into flame and cultures point at one another, crying, "He is different. Let us blame him for everything."

If the world is ever to be at peace, a remedy for hate must be found. Prejudice must be starved from existence. No individual, no nation will be happy and prosperous until an antidote is found to counteract the poison of intolerance.

—The Editor

DEDICATION

TO MR. HOWARD McCABE the class of '49 dedicates, with pride, its yearbook. To him we gratefully say, "Thank you for your interest in us, not only as freshmen, but also as upperclassmen. Thank you for giving us a splendid start, which has developed in our class the will to make every undertaking a success. Thank you for strengthening in us the ability 'to think for ourselves'."

ADMINISTRATION

As we review our senior year at Whitesboro Central School, Mr. HAROLD W. FORBES and Mr. GEORGE DUGGAN are outstanding in our memories. They have, through a well-organized administration, developed the fine ideals of the school and have led the students in upholding those principles. Ever willing to listen to our problems and help us solve them, Mr. Forbes and Mr. Duggan have become our friends.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee! O Sons of Whitesboro,
We have a trust to keep;
The love of Whitesboro High School
And her high ideals to seek;
Loyalty is for the blue,
And the white means honor bright;
So we'll stand true forever
To the Royal Blue and White.

Through the four long years of High School,
'Midst the scenes we love so well;
We have struggled on and upward
Till we've reached the goal ideal;
Whitesboro High, we'll ne'er forget you;
You have always loomed so bright,
And we'll all stand true forever
To the Royal Blue and White.

When we're launched on Life's great journey,
And we come to toil and care;
We will think of dear old Whitesboro
And the moral we've learned there;
We'll uphold her fine ideals,
And we'll represent the right —
Be right, be square, be true, be fair
To the Royal Blue and White.

HONORS AND AWARDS

HONOR STUDENTS

For the first time in the history of Whitesboro Central School, there was a tie for the position of valedictorian. Helen Stahl and Henry Koszewski, both having school averages of 96, made this record. When the Regents marks had been considered, Helen's average of 96 won for her the honor of delivering the valedictory address at commencement. Henry's Regents average was 95.444; he prepared the salutatory speech.

The remaining honor students and their four-year averages were announced as:

Carol Benson	95.454
Douglas Scholl	95.062
John Banas	94.500
Ross Moquin	93.500
Joanne Rodgers	93.272
Dolores Willems	93.272
Joanne Hastings	92.727
Anita Jiampietro	92.727

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Che-Ga-Quat-Ka Chapter of the National Honor Society was established at Whitesboro Central on March 18, 1949. Fifteen seniors and six juniors — having been selected on the four qualities of scholarship, service, leadership, and character—were "tapped" to membership.

The seniors installed were: John Banas, Carol Benson, Barbara Brennan, Janet Constantine, Wilfred Hahn, Joanne Hastings, Henry Koszewski, Richard Hawken, Ross Moquin, Shirley Pfluke, Gertrude Pierce, Therese

Quinn, Douglas Scholl, Helen Stahl and Shirley Stohrer.

Included from the junior class were: Joan Bathrick, Jean Bauder, Jerold Kowalsky, Joanne Mursch, Sheila Sewell and Francis Tobin.

In addition, Mrs. Helen Potter, who had been instrumental in founding the chapter, became an honorary member.

In electing officers, the members chose: Richard Hawken, president; Carol Benson, vice-president; Barbara Brennan, secretary, and Ross Moquin, treasurer.

SPECIAL AWARDS AND HONORS

Accepted by the Navy Department for enrollment in the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps, Wilfred Hahn has been awarded a full scholarship to cover all his expenses in college. In 1948, Wilfred won the Harvard Award, which is given to the outstanding junior boy.

Joane Hastings has won a Zonta Club scholarship for nursing. Covering a three-year period, the scholarship finances the winner during her training.

By vote, the senior class chose its four outstanding citizens. These four—Joanne Hastings, Helen Stahl, Wilfred Hahn, and Thomas Mullen — represented WCS at the Citizenship Education Convention held at Syracuse University on April 30. A finalist in the scholarship competition, Helen became an alternate for a Syracuse University scholarship.

During the summer of 1948, Wilfred Hahn and Henry Koszewski attended Empire Boys' State at Colgate University. While there, the boys had valuable training in citizenship and leadership.

Helen Stahl was selected to attend the Herald Tribune Forum for youth in New York City on March 5, 1949. In addition, she represented Whitesboro in the annual DAR competition, and she has been awarded the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award. In 1948, Helen won the Elmira College Key, which is given to the outstanding junior girl; that year she also received the French Medal of Honor. In 1946, she wrote an essay which took second prize in the Oneida County Junior Health Association Contest.

Ten senior boys—two groups of five each—became Junior Rotarians. As guests of the Rotary Club of Utica, they were given an opportunity to meet and talk with men in various occupations of interest to young men. The first quintet consisted of: William J. Greene, Richard Hawken, Francis Riley, Douglas Scholl and Howard Weeks; the second, of John Banas, Wilfred Hahn, Thomas Mullen, Richard Neimetz and Edward Szczesny.

For three years John Banas has won the Future Farmers of America speaking contest. Twice he proceeded through the sectionals to clinch the county title; this year, he again took sectional honors, although no county competition was held. In 1947, John received the American Agriculture Award.

In the 1948 National Commercial Contest, Jane Trzepacz attained the rank of fifth in the entire United States. Jane also received a Certificate of Proficiency, and a like award was won by Marion Greczkowski.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1949

Our freshman year at Whitesboro was new and exciting to most of us. In the fall, class elections were held and we showed that we were now capable high school students by electing: Richard Niemetz, as president; Thomas Mullen, vice-president; Richard Hawken, secretary; and Richard Linder, treasurer.

As "greenies" our time was mostly spent attending games and dances. Although we were inexperienced at sponsoring dances, our "Frosh Frolic" was a huge success. With the help of our faculty advisor, Mr. McCabe, we not only had a successful dance, but also a prosperous year.

Returning to school the next fall, we had already become familiar with W. C. S. No longer classified as "greenies," we now held the titles of "wise fools." To lead us successfully through our year we elected — Francis Riley, as president; Richard Niemetz, vice-president; Mary Germaine, secretary; and Richard Hawken, treasurer.

We all worked hard through this year and during the latter part of April, "Silas Marner" became a familiar topic to us. Our sophomore dance climaxed our wonderful year as Sophomores at W. C. S.

After a carefree summer, we began our junior year with the anticipation of all the events that would be awaiting us throughout the year. To lead our class we chose Wilfred Hahn, Gertrude Pierce, Jane Trzepacz, and Therese Quinn, as president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer respectively.

One of the first things we did was to order our class rings under Mr. Knutty's able supervision. Weren't we proud when we finally wore our rings!

To raise money for our treasury and to further our social life, we sponsored a roller skating party and two juke box dances, the "Rosebush Special" and the "Shamrock Frolic." However, we did not spend all our time at raising money, for in December we held a Christmas party.

When the January Regents were over, we had our Junior Jitterbug Contest, with Joanne Hastings and Richard Linder as co-chairmen.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1949

Joan Roback, a junior, and George Kallas will be remembered as winners of this event.

The climax of the year, of course, was our Junior Prom. Excitedly and patiently we waited for the final night to come, while the co-chairmen, Evelyn Wolak and Richard Hawken, and their committees worked hard to make the Prom a success. After the Junior Prom, our junior year, which had been a year of hard work and fun, was almost finished.

We witnessed a change in the school administration, in the spring of the year. When Mr. Harold Forbes came to Whitesboro as our supervising principal, we welcomed him and wished him success.

As seniors, we had hopes of making our last year a memorable one. To start the year, we elected our class officers: Thomas Mullen, president; Shirley Pfluke, vice-president; Mary Moore, secretary; and Shirley Sweetland, treasurer.

Our first big event was the Senior Play which, thanks to the cast, committees, and Miss Dey, was a great success.

As the days slipped by, the holidays appeared before us. The season was highlighted by our Senior Christmas Party.

After the strain of mid-term exams had passed, the yearbook committees and Editor-in-chief Helen Stahl began final preparation for the Che-Ga-Quat-Ka of 1949. Throughout the year, we sponsored dances, held assemblies, and sold Christmas cards and magazine subscriptions to finance this undertaking. The finished product represents a year of good times, hard work and co-operation.

Of course, we cannot mention our senior year without remembering Miss Berryman, her bell, "loving cup" and "Shmoo." The success of our senior year was greatly due to her patient guidance for which we are grateful.

Now, with graduation, we realize how quickly four years have passed. Although there were times when things seemed discouraging, now only the pleasant things come to mind. As we leave our Alma Mater, we will look back on these days with the pleasantest of memories.

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of the Whitesboro Central High School, declare that the following is a copy of our last will and testament in high school. The original is sealed in a time capsule, buried under the Senior Rest, set to be opened the day after graduation. The Seniors will as follows:

DONALD ALTHOFF, his English books to some one who can use them, since Don won't need them any more.

JOHN BANAS, his height to any "Jayvee" basketball player; it will come in handy.

DORIS BAKER, all the fun she had in her senior year to her sister, because June will enjoy it.

JEANNE BALSIZER, her widow's peak to Barbara Jones since she always wanted one and will appreciate it more than Jeanne does.

GRACE BASMAJIAN, booth in the Whitesboro Diner to Phyllis Yager and Tommy Tobin; she still wants them to eat after she leaves school.

RAYMOND BEERHALTER, playing the bass drum to Debby Gates, as she is next in line.

JOYCE BEERS, her athletic ability to Jane Mullen, because she will enjoy it as much as Joyce has.

CAROL BENSON, her collection of Latin III translations to Miss Merritt, since everyone else has used them.

EDWARD BENTLEY, his business arithmetic to anyone who wants it; he might be able to get more out of it than Ed did.

BARBARA BRENNAN, all her mathematic books and notes to her brother Don, because the books have all the answers in them and he won't have to take any notes.

EDNA BROWNLEE, her Home Ec. I report to Miss Stadel because Edna can't fill it up herself.

BETTY BYRNES, her appreciation for Mr. Knutty's jokes to Betty Lou Miga since she likes corn too!

WILLIAM CAREY, his dramatics book to any future senior, because he never did learn how to act.

JEAN CHASE, working at the basketball game to Mary Lou Coleman, since she has good nerves.

JANET CONSTANTINE, her choir music to Polly Scharter, as she's the only one who uses it.

BILL COUNTRYMAN, his lucky rabbit's foot to the next senior class, as they will need it.

MARGARET COYNE, her sweaters to her sister Allie, since she wears them anyway.

ARLENE CRUMB, the name "Crumbie" to sisters Eleanor and Carolyn, because they'll get it eventually and Arlene's sick of it.

JEAN CUMMINGS, her homeroom teacher, Mr. Ivers to any junior; she's had him for three years.

DICK DAMRATH, his mustache from senior play to anyone who wants a nice cookie duster, since it doesn't work on banana cream pie.

SHIRLEY DAVIES, her law handbook to Shirley Donovan, as she had it all year anyway.

JEAN DEY, her attendance card to Mrs. Evans, because she had it most of the time.

AGNES DIEHL, her history book to anyone who wants it; she's sick of carrying it around.

CAROLYN DINNEEN, her position on the varsity cheerleading squad to Betty Lou Miga, because she wants it.

RICHARD DOYLE, chemistry to any lucky junior, maybe he will be able to understand it.

MATT DUDECK, seat on Bus 2 to Joan Wessing, as she usually sits there.

MARNA DWYER, her chemistry book to any Greek reading individual because of her inability to decipher its contents.

ELMA EDWARDS, the bassoon to a patient person, since everyone asks so many questions about it.

NANCY EVANS, all future Latin III homework to any poor kid who comes along; she'll be darned if she can figure it out.

WALT FARMER, his place in A Cappella Choir to some intelligent freshmen, since that place needs intelligence.

RICHARD FINN, his solid geometry book to any future geometry student, since it's the last thing he'll take with him.

JOSEPH FISCHER, one seat on Bus 2 to Joan Zombik, as he doesn't like to see her standing.

CHARLES FRANCISCO, his books to some junior, since he's had them long enough.

JOHN FURMANSKI, a bottle of glue to Gene Zima, because she's always dropping things.

JOHN GARGASH, Whitesboro Central to Ed Lorenz since he doesn't go there anymore.

DONALD GEARY, his good jokes to Dick Schultz; he doesn't have any.

JANET GOOSETREY, her early seat on the bus to Dolores Maziarz, because she always ends up on the floor.

ANN GRACE, her four happy years at WCS to her brother Bill, since he will be coming here next year.

MARION GRECZKOWSKI, her typewriter to Dolores Maziarz; she's used it for three years.

JIM GREENE, being president of M.E. to the most worthy member, who will deserve the good times that go with it.

DONALD GUIDO, his "love" of onions to Betty Lou Miga; she hates them too.

WILFRED HAHN, a pair of roller skates and five study halls a day to the next president of Student Council; with these he might be able to keep up with everything.

ANNE HANSEN, her class ring to Al Rehm; since he's had it for two years, he might as well keep it.

JOANNE HASTINGS, the clothes she wears to sister Natalie, since half of them belong to her.

DICK HAWKEN, the phone booth in Link's to Donald Niemetz; he's always waiting to use it.

MARILYN HENSEL, the name "Cheezie" to anybody who wants it; she doesn't.

CHARLES HUGHES, his driving ability to Dick Smith, since he can't drive.

GEORGE HUGHES, his height to Eddie DePalma; he can use a little.

MARGARET HUGHES, her trip to Westminster Choir College to Molly Stauffer, as Peg feels Molly deserves it.

IRENE HUMPHREY, Mr. Knutty's dry humor to all future seniors, as they'll get a "charge" from it.

DONNA JENNINGS, every high mark she ever got to Mr. Jones, because he never got any from her.

ANITA JIAMPINETRO, her three years of math to anyone who can use them; she never will.

DICK KEYES, his history books to Marilyn Keyes, so she can do something with them.

JEAN KLINGLE, her seat on Bus 2 to her sister Barbara, since she will be needing it soon.

FLOYD KORONOWSKI, all back English homework to anyone who can do it in order to let someone have something to do.

ELEANOR KOSTYN, her seat and all her good times in bookkeeping class to Jack Friedel; he tried all year to get her seat and he enjoyed the good times better than she did.

CLASS WILL

- HENRY KOSZEWSKI, all his history notes to brother Leonard, since he will be able to use them.
- JUNE LADD, her seat in secretarial practice class to anyone who wants it; she's tired of it.
- DAVEY LANGENEGGER, English and social studies books to sister Joan, she'll get them anyway.
- HAROLD LANSING, his books to some unlucky junior; Harold couldn't use them and he hopes they will.
- DICK LINDER, his chemistry book to Mr. Knutty; maybe he can make some sense out of it.
- WALTER LORENZ, his books to brother Ed; he uses them more than Walt does.
- LOIS MALLET, a bottle of ink and her pen to Dick Edgett; his pen is always leaking and the teachers like neat papers.
- JOAN MASON, her farmer walk to Joan Schreppel; maybe she can improve it.
- PATRICIA MACLENNON, her cashier's job in the cafeteria to Dolores Powell, because she's always trying to get it.
- EDNA McBEE, her seat in history class to Frances Rollband; she enjoyed it even though she wasn't there very much.
- MARGARET McBRIDE, her history book to her sister Anne, since she's had a monopoly on it all year.
- ELIZABETH MCSWEENEY, secretarial practice class to anyone who wants it.
- DORIS MILLER, her silliness to Norma Lou Perry because Norma needs it, and it's about time Doris got rid of it.
- JEAN MILLS, seat in homeroom 28, to anyone who wants it because two years are long enough to have it.
- MARILYN MISIASZEK, her skill in driving to Mr. Rosebush's next class, because she values her life.
- MARY MOORE, her second period gym class to some unlucky soul; four years were too much.
- ROSS MOQUIN, his seat near the door in chemistry to anyone who wants to be the first one out.
- VIRGINIA MOSES, her history book to any ambitious junior because she uses Pat's.
- LOUIS MOUNSER, all Mr. Knutty's bad jokes to Bob Coughlin, so he can add the corny ones to those he already has.
- RICHARD NIEMETZ, the N.B. presidency to Buck Weaver, because Buck has enough patience for the job.
- CATHARINE OTTO, locker 1065 to Dick Christenson, since he can always be found near it.
- THERESA PACIOREK, her sweaters to sister Frances, since she wears them now.
- DICK PARRY, six inches of height to Crosby Barnes because he's short and can't see anything.
- EDWIN PENDRAK, No. 16 football helmet to Dick Moyer; it was his in the first place.
- SHIRLEY PFLUKE, her schedule to Arleigh Paquette, since he takes life too easy.
- GERTRUDE PIERCE, her agility during the last minute deadline rush to Willard Jordan; the Wisp "must go on."
- BERTHA PISARZYK, her fountain pen to Rosemary Marcinkiewicz because it doesn't work.
- AUGUST PRICE, his retailing book to Don Motto, because he's had it long enough.
- THERESE QUINN, her glasses to Joan Sweetland, since Joan can manage them better than she.
- MARY REID, future bookkeeping homework to anyone who wants it, since she never has done it.
- FRANCIS RILEY, his seat in Miss Berryman's room to brother Joe, because he hopes to be a senior next year.
- JOAN ROBACK, her dancing ability to sister Eileen, because she seems to enjoy it.
- JOAN ROBERTS, her chemistry lab experiments to any unlucky junior; there are too many explosions.
- JOANNE RODGERS, English notes and compositions to Dick Haas; he has them now.
- WANDA ROMANOWSKI, her plaid coat to sister Gerry, because she treats it like her own.
- JOSEPH RYBKA, his ability to hit a golf ball straight to Frank Swierat, since it will save him a lot of worry and extra walking.
- DOUGLAS SCHOLL, ability to sleep through chemistry class to any lucky junior; it is easier that way.
- DONALD SCHOFER, four years of mathematics to any junior who wants them; someone may need them.
- DOROTHY SHEIMA, future days at WCS to brother Walter, because he'll be there next year.
- LORRAINE SMITH, all books to brother Thomas because he'll get them when he needs them.
- NORMAN SOJA, his peroxide hair formula to any WCS girl; he wants to share the secret formula.
- JACQUELINE SOULE, another name to Sheila Sewell; their names are always getting mixed up.
- EVELYN SPELLMAN, her business law marks to Reggie Rahn, since he needs them.
- ROBERT SPRINGER, his basketball sneaks to brother Dick because he will need them for the next two years.
- JANE SROKA, her secretarial notes to Gladys Babula; she'll need them.
- HELEN STAHL, feature page of the "Wisp" to Sheila Sewell, since she will make a successful editor.
- GERALD STEVENS, his little freshman girl friends to Bob Wheeler, who likes them young.
- CHARLES STOCKHAUSER, his motor bike to Dick Christensen, because his doesn't run.
- SHIRLEY STOHRER, her history 9 notes to brother Bud; he'll use them next year.
- HARRIET STOOKS, her seat on Bus 9 to those who stand when there are no seats.
- SHIRLEY SWEETLAND, her typewriter to the junk yard, since that's where it belongs.
- EDWARD SZCZESNY, everything he didn't get to brother Jim, since he wouldn't have a chance other wise.
- JANE TRZEPACZ, all her books to Eddie Trzepacz, because she hopes he'll make use of them.
- RITA UNGER, her secretarial practice book to Dolores Zaleski since Rita's had enough of it.
- THERESA VIVYAN, her last few pennies to James Vivyan; he is always asking for money.
- HOWARD WEEKS, his English vocabulary book to Joe Langan; he murders the King's English.
- DOLORES WILLEMS, her good school attendance to Roberta Beal, because she is so often absent.
- ARLENE WIND, all her books to the rest of the Wind's at WCS, because they'll be passed down the line anyway.
- EVELYN WOLAK, her long steps to Tanya Smolinsky; her's are so short.
- LARRY WORDEN, his seat in the back of the room in history to Don Fovel, so he can catch up on his sleep.
- MARTHA WYNNE, her giggle to Miss Stadel, since Miss Stadel will miss it next year.
- DOLORES ZAKRZEWSKI, future days at Whitesboro to the future Zaks, because they'll all be here.
- ROBERT ZAKRZEWSKI, his seat in room 29 to any lucky junior because it's the best senior homeroom.
- ALEX ZOMBIK, his seat in homeroom 31 to Carl McCurry, since it will keep him out of trouble in homeroom 22.

THE 49 FABULOUS FATHOMS

The Junior Prom will be remembered by everyone for a long time after many of the other memories of high school have been forgotten. This is especially true of everyone who worked to make the Prom a success. They will not only recall the one night but also the fun and long hours spent working on the Prom.

When the long awaited night finally came, everyone was captivated by the mysterious atmosphere of King Neptune's Realm. All were fascinated by the movement of the waves and the peculiar fish found everywhere. The music of Ray Dimitrich and his band drifted over the whole sea floor from the hull of a sunken ship, and a trip to Davy Jones' Locker provided refreshments for the dancers. The most thrilling moment of the Prom, however, was the crowning on King Neptune's Throne with Dick Damrath and Therese Quinn, as King and Queen. Then with the grand march, the Prom became just a memory of a night in "49 Fabulous Fathoms."

During the past year, Iota Chapter of K.E. has been exceedingly active, not only as an organization connected with Whitesboro Central School, but also as one of the numerous chapters which make up our statewide society. That we who are members of K.E. are all loyal and willing to work to the best of our ability was evidenced during the preceding months by our innumerable successful activities including our novel Sock-trot, and other dances, the Smorgasbord, roller skating parties and card parties. Those of us who attended the annual K.E. convention in Elmira in 1948 were extremely proud of the honors captured by our own Iota Chapter, namely, the winning of two of the three prize cups and the honor of playing host to next year's convention. To the K.E. girls of tomorrow we wish to express a sincere wish that their years in K.E. may be as successful and worthwhile as ours have been.

In the autumn of 1948, six of the students of Whitesboro Central School—William Greene, Wilfred Hahn, Alfred Kolmer, Francis Martin, Ross Moquin, and Richard Linder — organized the Meta Hetairon Fraternity to promote everlasting friendship among its members and to provide a wholesome environment for them. At their first meeting, these boys selected six more members—Gerald Stevens, Donald Schofer, Douglas Scholl, Donald Althoff, Joseph Fischer, and Henry Koszewski. Thus far, the fraternity has carried on very prosperously with worthwhile, successful activities and already has established a permanent "club house." Meta Hetairon Fraternity is eager to be your friend and to please you.
